DESCRIPTION OF PERFORMANCE

On June 6, 2014, you were off-duty riding your motorcycle when you were stopped by a Sergeant from the Los Angeles Police Department. The Sergeant indicated in his complaint that you were driving at an unsafe speed. He conducted a traffic stop and checked your license plate before contacting you. Once he learned that your license returned to your name and the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, he decided to pull up alongside you to discuss the reason for the traffic stop.

The Sergeant indicated that during the traffic stop, you were rude, and questioned him as to where he worked. Before he could decide whether to cite you or warn you about your unsafe speed, you started your motorcycle and drove away from him.

Your actions were unprofessional and your behavior brought discredit to yourself and the Department. You are required by law and Department policy to be accountable for your actions both on and off-duty. You are also supposed to be obedient to all laws, regulations, and orders. Your conduct was officious and overbearing.

This performance log entry is being issued to you as a warning. Any future behavior along these lines might subject you to further discipline.
